Things You Should Know

Don't risk your chances for Federally assisted housing by providing false, incomplete, or inaccurate information on your application and rectification forms.

PURPOSE This is to inform you that there is certain information you must provide when applying for assisted housing. There are penalties that apply if you knowingly omit information or give false information.

PENALTIES FOR COMMITTING FRAUD The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) places a high priority on preventing fraud. If your application or rectification forms contain false or incomplete information, you may be:

- * Evicted from your apartment or house:
- * Required to repay all overpaid rental assistance you received:
- * Fined up to $10,000.00:
- * Imprisoned for up or 5 years; and/or
- * Prohibited from receiving future assistance.

Your State and local governments may have other laws and penalties as well.

ASKING QUESTIONS When you sit down with the person who fills out your application, you should know what is expected of you. If you do not understand something, say so. That person can answer your question or find out what the answer is.

COMPLETING THE APPLICATION When you give your answers to application questions, you must include the following information:

Income:

- * All sources of money you and any "adult" member of the family receive (wages, welfare payments, alimony, social security, pensions, etc.).
- * Any money you receive on behalf of your children (child support, social security for children, etc.).
- * Income from assets (interest from a savings account, credit union, or certificate of deposit, dividends from stocks, AK Perm Dividend, etc.).
- * Earnings from a second job or part time job.

Family/Household Members:

- * The names of all of the people (adults and children) who will actually be living with you whether or not they are related to you.

Signing the Application

- * Do not sign any form unless you have read it, understand it, and are sure everything is complete and accurate.
- * When you sign the application and certification forms, you are claiming that they are complete to the best of your knowledge and belief. You are committing fraud if you sign a form knowing that it contains false or misleading information.
- * Information you give on your application will be verified by your housing agency. In addition, HUD may do computer matches of the income you report with various Federal, State, or private agencies to verify that it is correct.

Recertifications

You must provide updated information at least once a year. Some programs require that you report any changes in income or family/household composition immediately. Be sure to ask when you must rectify. You must report on rectification forms:

- * Any family/household member who has moved in or out.

- * Do not pay any money to move up on the waiting list.
- * Do not pay for anything not covered by your lease.
- * Get a receipt for the money you pay.
- * Get a written explanation if you are required to pay any money other than rent (such as maintenance charges, etc.).

Reporting Abuse

If you are aware of anyone who has falsified an application, or if anyone tries to persuade you to make false statements, report them to the manager of your project or PHA. If you cannot report to the manager, call the local HUD office or the HUD hotline at (202) 472-4200. This is not a toll free number. You can also write to the HUD Hotline, Room 8254, 451 Seventh Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20410.
