

Calling all Ninilchik Tribal Members,
Community Members, and Local Fishermen!

Join us for a special

COMMUNITY LISTENING SESSION

with the Tikahtnu Intertribal Fish Commission

FRIDAY, MARCH 13

Noon • Lunch (Free meal & great company!)

1:00pm • Listening Session

at the Ninilchik Community Center • 15763 Kingsley Rd

We will be gathering to:

- Assess NTC's priorities for environmental monitoring and youth engagement.
- Learn more about NTC's intern and youth workforce programs.
- Discover NTC's data collection protocols.
- Gather Traditional Ecological Knowledge (TEK) related to fish for a new curriculum.
- Discuss possible dates, topics, and ideas for a multi-day community restoration or environmental monitoring project - plus workshops - in the lower Cook Inlet area this June or July.

YOUR KNOWLEDGE AND EXPERIENCE MATTER!

All are welcome - especially those with a passion for fishing, community, youth, and environmental stewardship.

Come for lunch, stay for the conversation, and help shape the future of Ninilchik!
